Dear Critt:

Many thanks for the copy you sent me of "The President's Report" for 1958. I shall look forward to reading it.

Let me take this opportunity to say how much I, as an American citizen, admire you for having carried on the duties of President of the Free Europe Committee. I have followed in the press the activities of that Committee under you, and it is clear that real service to the cause of freedom has been rendered.

Here are best wishes for your future from a man who has admired you for thirty-seven years.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
